

2007

Nick Wolff Calls his Association with Deborah Valentino a “Blueprint for Success”

Yonkers, NY - Nick Wolff, Broker Owner, CENTURY 21 Wolff, with offices in Yonkers, New Rochelle, Mamaroneck, White Plains, and Mount Pleasant is pleased to announce that Deborah Valentino, Principal Broker of Valentino Signature Homes & Estates Corporation has joined his Yonkers office.

“It gives me great pride to welcome Deborah Valentino, a seasoned area broker, to our CENTURY 21 Wolff network. Valentino, whose office was in the Lincoln Park, Dunwoodie area of Yonkers, has served buyers and sellers throughout Yonkers for nearly 14 years”, said Wolff.” Valentino’s real estate career has been extensive and successful. She was instrumental in the fight against increasing the Yonkers transfer tax and continues to stay involved in Yonkers’ initiatives,” he added.

Valentino is comfortable with the CENTURY 21® network, having previously managed a CENTURY 21® office. She feels strongly about ethics and training which is why she believes her association with Nick Wolff is a perfect fit. “Nick’s training, ethics and dedication to his agents is unmatched in my opinion” said Valentino.

The seasoned broker also worked well on many transactions throughout the years with the Manager in CENTURY 21 Wolff Yonkers, Debby DiMiceli . This further convinced Valentino that this association is the right one for her. She remains convinced that success in real estate is hard- earned and that joining the Wolff Team of Experience will allow her continued success in her career.

Valentino’s husband is a Yonkers firefighter “as if real estate wasn’t stressful enough” joked the Realtor. Besides caring for her two daughters, Valentino finds time for her hobby: home staging. She is an Accredited Staging® Professional™ Realtor®. This training and certification allows her to make sure her listed properties are showcased to their fullest potential. She is well prepared to greet the Spring Market for homeowners and buyers.